Press Release – Bernard Max Resnick Appointed as Law Professor

For Immediate Release:

Bernard Max Resnick, Esquire has been appointed as a Lecturer in Law of the Faculty of the Villanova University School of Law. He will teach a course in entertainment law, beginning in the 2015 academic year.

Also, Mr. Resnick recently served as a judge at the Eastern Coast Regional section of the 2014 IP LawMeet moot court competition, held at the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Additionally, Mr Resnick presented a “Legislative Roundup” of current entertainment law legislative and judicial developments for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute’s Continuing Legal Education program titled “Entertainment Law in the 21st Century”, held in Philadelphia, PA and simulcast throughout Pennsylvania.

Further, Mr. Resnick was recently elected to be a member of the Nominating Committee of the Philadelphia Chapter of The Recording Academy (“Grammy” awards). He already serves as a member of the Chapter’s Board of Governors, and he is the Co-Chair of the Chapter’s Classical Music and Advocacy Committees.

Mr. Resnick recently earned a RIAA “Gold” plaque for his involvement in recording artist Michael Jackson’s recent “Xscape” LP. Mr. Resnick represented various record producers and recording studio engineers who contributed to this hit LP.

Mr. Resnick is an entertainment attorney with 28 years’ experience in the industry. His firm, Bernard M. Resnick, Esq., P.C., has earned over 100 gold, platinum, multi-platinum, Billboard #1, Grammy, Eurovision, BDS, MTV, Dove and other awards for deals negotiated and drafted on behalf of the firm’s clients, representing sales of over 130,000,000 records.
